Assoc. Prof. Dr. Korakod Indrapichate
2. Miss Busara Juanvorachai acted as Rapporteur

The Director of the Centre for International Affairs, Prof. Dr. Ruben C. Umaly chaired the meeting. Among the items considered were as follows:

1. The IUP course that will actually be operated in the academic year 1995 is Mechanical Engineering. In 1/1995 semester, most of the courses will be basic sciences and English. The concerned institutes such as the Institute of Science and the Institute of Social Technology are informed to prepare for those courses.

2. The academic calendar: The 2/1995 semester calendar of the Thai undergraduate program is adopted as the 1/1995 semester calendar of the IUP. Therefore, the first semester of the IUP will begin on 18 September 1995.

3. Registration of the IUP is assigned to the Centre for Educational Services.

4. Intensive English: The mid-term report from the School of English showed that 5 (out of 10) students are on probation. Archan Suriya informed that most of students do not take the English seriously. Thai is used among students in the class. They may lack motivation. Academic advisor(s) from the concerned institute should be assigned to the students during the intensive English study.

However, the students who are on probation are still eligible to register for the IUP but they must obtain a GPA of at least 2.0 during the first term of study.
