Dear Ruben,

Greetings, greetings. Here's a query from one kababayan to another: would you know how Cesar Bacani put together the names of Asian institutions that were included in the Asiaweek survey (in which you are quoted - congratulations). Some extremely paranoid faculty at AIT are blaming me (would you believe?) for AIT's non-inclusion. I have a feeling that the survey is of national universities and is focused on their undergraduate and graduate programs - not postgraduate.

I would appreciate hearing from you soonest. Can you also let me know what is the best (fastest) way to reach Cesar Bacani and inquire from him directly.

Maraming salamat.

Paddy
