Dear Ruben,

I hope everything is going fine with you and Bong despite the economic condition creeping all over Asia. Been reading and hearing about Thailand.

Dr. Sitanala Arsyad is not attending the HOM, so the two deputies will sit in for him. I am booked at the Amari Watergate Hotel from 23-27 Nov. As usual, I am spending my last one-month vacation in the Philippines and wherever my sisters would want to go.

Since the meeting does not start until the 25th, if you and Bong are free, we could have dinner together on the evening of the 24th. Please leave word at the desk if you will ~~not~~ be able to make it. Sorry, I could not write earlier as the e-mail was down for some days due to the thunderstorms, lightning and rains. It started working only an hour ago (so I rushed to the office to send out my delayed mails).

Regards and hope to see you for all the stories.

Gloria

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am very favourably recommending Dr. Nguyen Loc to the position that he is applying at your office.

Dr. Nguyen Loc has been known to me for more than four years now. I have met him while he was still with the Ministry of Education and Training in Hanoi, Vietnam where he was doing excellent work. It is a recognition of his potential to do work at the international level that his office recommended him for the post of Program Officer at the Southeast Asia Ministers of Education Organization Secretariat (SEAMES) in Bangkok. It was during the last two years of my incumbency as Director of SEAMES that he was appointed to the post. He worked very efficiently and effectively with me during that time specially in the management of the SEAMEO - CIDA Projects and SEAMEO Center activities in Vietnam.

He was able to accomplish his missions and tasks with minimum or no supervision. He is very capable of doing independent work and has shown great initiative in the accomplishment of his assignments. He is trustworthy, dependable and very cooperative. He is also extremely helpful especially in facilitating linkages between Vietnam and SEAMES as well as SEAMEO CENTERS.

Dr. Nguyen Loc has a very pleasant personality, easy to get along with and is well liked by his colleagues.

I am confident that under your supervision and leadership, Dr. Nguyen Loc will prove to be an asset in your organization.

RE: RECOMMENDATION LETTER

Enclosed is the draft of a recommendation letter you requested. Kindly fax to me your corrections and suggestions. I will finalize it on an SUT letter head if you have no corrections. I will be going to SEAMES on Monday, the 18th of March and so I will be able to give it to you personally.

Thank you very much for the names and addresses you gave in Malaysia. I was having difficulty getting the fax of Arfah and so I sent the letter by EMS. I hope to visit at least Kuala Lumpur if I get a response from them. Thanks for your help.

Warm personal regards and best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
