Dear Ruben,

I am writing to you from my office at ESA, where, as you can imagine, I have found a lot of things to do.

As usual, there is a certain price to pay for being absent so long, and I am struggling to catch up... .

I wanted to express you my very sincere and deepest gratitude for the absolutely unique kindness you have demonstrated to me during my stay in Khorat.

I know how busy you are, and i therefore give the right price to the time that you dedicated to me, including on that Friday evening where, instead of flying to Bangkok to join your family, you brought us to that exquisite restaurant.

Thank you so much for all that, Ruben.

And thank you also so much for the wonderful watch. I have to admit to you that it will never land on my desk here, as I had initially planned : my wife Béatrice found it so nice and so "well-fitting" with our living room (we like wood very much indeed), that she kind of "re-oriented" the destination of the object... .

I hope that the session will proceed as well as I have seen it progressing so far.

You can be proud of SUT : we will remember 1999 and refer to it for many many years in the various ISU circles.

As far as we are concerned, I do reiterate my invitation to please let me know whenever your travel arrangements bring you somewhere in Europe.

I am not at all a fan of the inflation of words.

But I would be honoured if you consider me as your friend.

Take care.

Stefano

You are too nice really !

I know how busy you must be, and it is therefore exceptional to see you taking the time to investigate these things for me.

I'll certainly take advantage of any information received from you.

Kind regards,

Stefano Fiorilli

Dear Stefano,

Thank you very much for finding the time to send an email inspite your heavy schedule and catching up with paper work after the long absence.

As I said before, the honor and pleasure of seeing you again albeit only for short time was mine. Of the so many people involved in ISU (in Strasbourg and here) only you and Inesa are the ones very close and dear to me. I can also not forget your kindness and concern during those wintry days in Strasbourg. I was greatly touched and I am very happy that we could be friends, friends not only for ISU but on all counts. As I also said, it is a pity you had also been so busy while here. I hope you could come again with a more relaxed schedule that will be a bit more free.

This is the final examination week as it is the end of the first term at SUT. Luckily I teach only part of three graduate courses and so I did not have many papers to mark. Next term will be different as most of my courses will be for undergraduate students and so the classes will be big. I already finished marking all the papers and so I am freer now.

Today, we will have guests from the Australian Embassy, including the Ambassador himself and so I will be a bit busy in the afternoon. I was supposed to have left for Manila yesterday, but because of the visit of the Ambassador, I have to postpone my departure for tomorrow. I wanted to leave for Manila a bit earlier to visit my sisters and my former University but I have no choice. I will be staying in Manila only for one night. Tomorrow on arrival there will be immediately a reception and it will be my sisters who will come to my hotel instead of visiting them at home.. There will be a whole day meeting on Friday and in the evening I will return to Bangkok to catch my plane for Frankfurt and Salzburg the following day. I will return to Bangkok on the first of September arriving there on the 2nd and will be on time for the Closing Ceremonies on the 3rd. I may even be in the same plane from Bangkok to Korat with Pres. Doetsch. He is the only person in ISU that I am a bit close. Thus, even if I wanted to take a few days holiday in the Netherlands and Germany I could not because of ISU.

September will not be so busy- may be only two trips within the region - Manila and Vietnam. This will give me time to catch up with some academic work. I have to prepare my lecture notes for the second term courses. This may give me time also to catch up with my Chinese lessons which I have neglected the last two months. I expect to be back in China in October.

I am glad your wife also liked the watch and it will be my pleasure and honor to have it in your living room !!! Give my kind regards to her. It is a pity I did not have the chance to meet her in Bangkok. Take care and wishing you all the best.

Your friend in Asia, Ruben

Sincerely,

(Prof.Dr.Ruben C Umaly)
